ACS Paragon Plus – OA matching begins at Submission

The screenshot shows the ACS Paragon Plus submission interface. At the top, the ACS Publications logo and 'ACS Paragon Plus' are displayed. Below the logo, there are navigation links for 'Home' and 'Edit Profile'. A large arrow points from the 'Edit Profile' link to a text box that says 'System warns the Author if they do not use the menu to select institution'. To the left of the arrow, two text boxes explain the process: 'Begins with Author at Manuscript submission' and 'Corresponding Author selects their institution from the provided list in Paragon Plus'. The main form area is titled 'Primary Address' and contains several fields: Institution, Department, Address, Country / Region, State/Province, City, Postal Code, Phone, and Fax. A dropdown menu is open for the Department field, showing a list of institutions including 'Tokyo Daigaku', 'Tokyo Daigaku - Hongo Campus', 'Tokyo Daigaku Daigakuin Igakukei Kenkyuka Igakubu', 'Yakuzai Ekigaku', 'Tokyo Daigaku Daigakuin Kogakukei Kenkyuka Kogakubu', and 'Tokyo Daigaku Daigakuin Sogo Bunka Kenkyuka Kyoyo Gakubu'. A mouse cursor is hovering over the 'Tokyo Daigaku - Hongo Campus' option. To the right of the form, there are 'Previous' and 'Next' navigation buttons. On the left side of the form, there is a vertical list of steps: 1. E-Mail / Name, 2. Address, 3. Areas of Expertise, and 4. Other Profile Details. A red box highlights a warning dialog box that appears when the institution is not selected from the dropdown. The dialog box contains the following text: 'acs.manuscriptcentral.com says You have not selected an institution from the drop-down list. Please make a selection from the drop-down list to ensure you receive all of the benefits that ACS provides to your institution. Note that the name of the institution on your manuscript can appear differently from the naming convention in the list.' An 'OK' button is at the bottom right of the dialog.
